Learning intention

In lesson 5, students were required to use what they already knew about their dream job to complete the worksheet. In this lesson they will be using career sites to further their understanding and insight of their chosen job.

Success criteria

Students will:

- provide a researched, detailed description of one of the dream jobs they identified in lesson 5
- make connections between their attributes and interests to the dream job they have identified.

Resources

- Career journal with completed Dream job worksheet
- Computer
- Worksheet – My dream job: Career exploration
- Information sheet: Creating a myfuture account

 - <https://www.jobsandskills.gov.au/data/occupation-and-industry-profiles>
- Whole class
- Individual

Preparation

- Students should complete lesson 5 before commencing this lesson. They will need to log into their myfuture account to complete this activity. If they don't have an account, they can use the 'Creating a myfuture account'.
- Print My dream job: career exploration worksheet for each student

Activity 1

- Students revisit lesson 5 to remind themselves of the dream job they identified.
- If students haven't previously set up a myfuture account, they will need to do this before going further. Use the information sheet provided.
- Using the myfuture site, teacher guides the students through the Occupations section before they commence their own navigation of the section. View the short video on this page.
- Students work by themselves to navigate the Occupations section searching for information to complete the Dream Job worksheet.

Activity 2

- Students compare the information found through their research with their initial thoughts and understandings about their dream job when they completed the worksheet from lesson 5.

Reflection

Give students time to respond to the following question:

Which of my abilities and attributes will help me be successful in my dream job?
