

English curriculum resource - handwriting

The Western Australian Curriculum: English describes how handwriting should progress across year levels. It also describes the expectations of teachers.

The Western Australian Curriculum: English – Literacy strand articulates the handwriting content for each year.

WA Curriculum requirements

The curriculum describes a progression of students' handwriting skills from unjoined letters in the early years to fluently and automatically writing clearly formed, joined letters in Year 3 onwards.

Pre-primary

Handwriting development is linked to fine-motor skill development. Children will be at different stages of development in their fine-motor skills, ability to use and hold tools and perform different movement patterns.
